

Lifeline / Affordable Connectivity Program

Lifeline and the Affordable Connectivity Program (ACP) help low-income families and individuals stay connected so they can access healthcare, find jobs, attend classes, stay in touch with family, and call for help in an emergency. Anyone who qualifies for Lifeline, also qualifies for the ACP.

Lifeline

Eligible Services: Residential and wireless phone service and broadband internet

Benefits: Total federal and state discounts of up to $17.02 per month are available.* Subscribers living on tribal lands qualify for additional discounts.

Affordable Connectivity Program (ACP)

Eligible Services: Broadband internet

Benefits: Monthly Broadband Discount of $30 per month. Up to $75 per month for households on qualifying tribal lands. A one-time discount of up to $100 to purchase a laptop, desktop computer, or tablet from participating providers if the subscriber contributes more than $10 and less than $50 toward the purchase price.

Eligibility: You may be eligible for both Lifeline and the ACP if you receive any of the following benefits or your income is at or below 135% of the Federal Poverty Guidelines for Lifeline or at or below 200% for ACP. (See the income eligibility guides for both programs below)
